Kristin Rowe serves as Drummond Woodsum's Finance Manager. In this role, Kristin is responsible for the overall financial management of the firm. She supervises the Accounting Department staff, oversees the day-to-day administration of all key processes and functions of firm financials including cash management, payroll, budgeting, and financial reporting. As a member of the firm's senior administration team, Kristin works closely with leadership to support various initiatives and the strategic vision of the firm.

Kristin received an Associate of Science in Business Administration from Southern Maine Community College and a Bachelors of Science in Accounting from the University of Southern Maine. Kristin has been with the firm for over 8 years performing various functions of accounting and finance. She holds licenses as a Resident Producer, Life and Health Insurance and Resident Producer, and Property and Casualty. Prior to joining Drummond Woodsum, Kristin worked in the insurance industry as an Insurance Adjuster and a Producer.

In her spare time she and her husband enjoy volunteering in the community and currently serve on the STRIVE Annual Live and Silent Auction Committee.
