As a marketing professional, Terri brings more than 16 years of experience in marketing communications, strategic planning, and brand positioning. As the Director of Marketing for Drummond Woodsum, she works closely with firm leadership, practice groups, and individual attorneys to create marketing and business development strategies which will further position Drummond Woodsum's practice areas for growth. She also oversees media relations, creative services, sponsorships, events, as well as external and online communications.

Prior to joining Drummond Woodsum, Terri was the Marketing Director for the sixth oldest architecture firm in the country and Marketing and Public Relations Director for a statewide nonprofit in Maine.

A native of Maine, Terri graduated cum laude from Saint Joseph's College in 2001 with a B.S. in Business Administration. She completed an MBA in Leadership through Saint Joseph's College in 2013. She resides in Westbrook with her husband and daughter.
